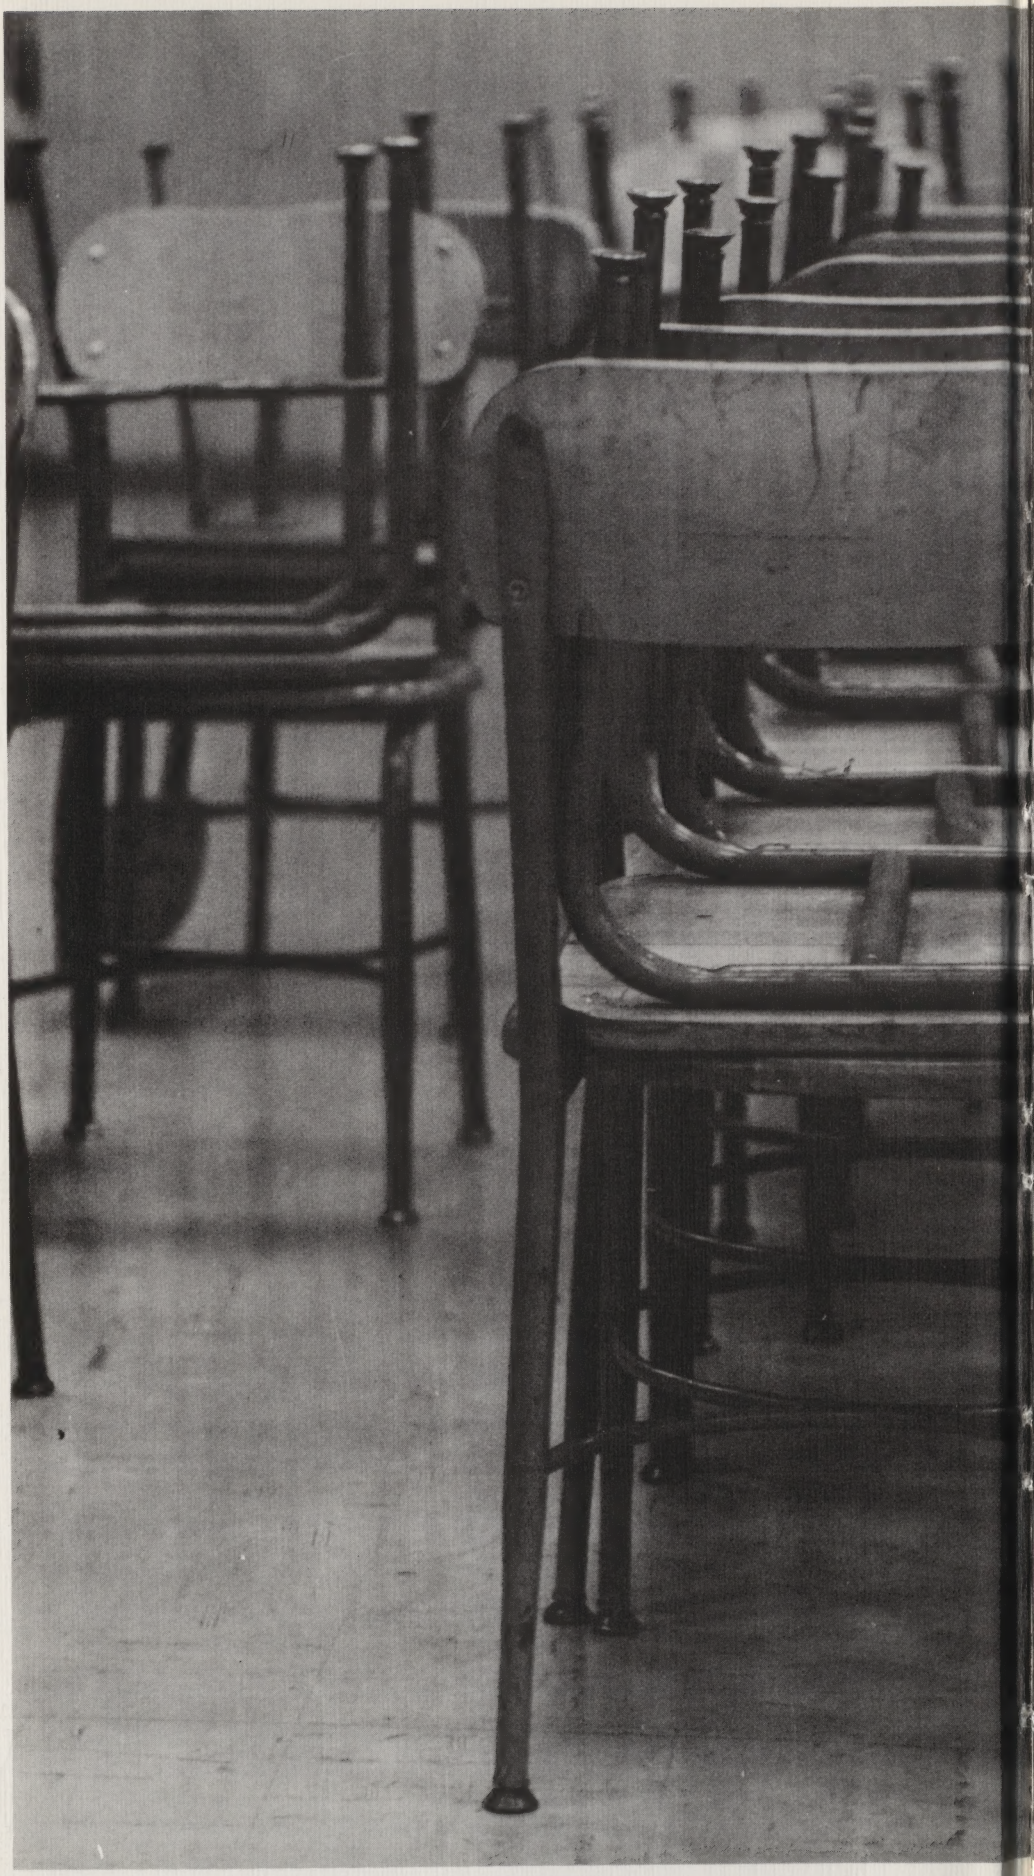
. . . Dedicated to those who have not yet found their place — remember that no place is larger or smaller, but only more or less well known. If you don't like your place in this book — cut it out and put it somewhere else . . .



Del Valle High School 1973

"In Retrospect" . . .

walking in the sand thinking of things adventures in my mind . . .

of tall ships that sail across the oceans wide . . .

they won't wait for me . . .

see how they glide away so gracefully . . .

and with tomorrow what will become of me . . .

they leave me so much to explain

that's the start of our guessing game.

. . . Yesterday Is But Today's Memory

And Tomorrow Is Today's Dream

Your Children Are

They are the sons and daughters
They come through you
And though they are with you
You may give them your love For they have
You may house their bodies
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, You may strive to be like them,

Not Your Children

of Life's longing for itself.
but not from you,
yet they belong not to you.
but not your thoughts,
their own thoughts.
but not their souls,
which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.
but seek not to make them like you.

MR. WILLIAM TEUTSCHEL, Principal

I shall always remember you, the class of '73 with special fondness. You are one of the best classes to graduate from Del Valle. Your leadership and participation in school activities has been excellent. As you pass on to future endeavors, whatever they may be, I give you the following Irish blessing, a favorite of mine:

"May the road rise up to meet you May the wind be always at your back May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand."

Tseng Ta-yu

The clouds may swiftly change, but the mountain stands aloft.
The rain may now be still,
but the water forever flows.
As your heart responds
in harmony with nature, Your expressed thought will go forth to eternity.

"To be one with the Universe, one must find his true path and follow it."
